

WELCOME TO THE CUT

A great wine is an expression of nature and place; a meeting of art and science in the hands of the winemaker. The following wines have been selected because of their authentic expression and ability to pair with our food.

From the traditional houses whose determination and view helped put Australia on the wine map, to the more 'up & coming' producers and regions, you are sure to find something to suit your tastes and delight your senses.

Cheers!

THE CUT COCKTAILS - BRACERS

Bracers are short, sharp and stimulating mixtures designed to lift you from your seat.....

Charlie Chaplin $21

Tanqueray Gin, Apricot Liqueur, Sloe Gin and Lime

First published in A.S. Crockett's Old Waldorf Bar Days, this was named in honour of the famous actor but it is unclear whether it was ever a favourite of the man himself. We have changed the ratio a little to allow for an extra kick of juniper

Toreador $21

Patron Silver Tequila, Apricot Brandy, Lime

This cocktail may resemble the Margarita but it was seen in print in 1937, some 16 years before the first printed reference to the modern classic

Scofflaw $21

Bulleit Rye, Lemon, Dry Vermouth, Grenadine, Orange Bitters

A competition was held in 1924 to create a word to describe "a lawless drinker of illegally made or illegally obtained liquor". The winning word was "Scofflaw". Three years later the Scofflaw Cocktail found its way into print in Harry McElhone cocktail guide "Barflies and Cocktails"

Royal Bermuda Yacht Club $21

Blend of Light and Dark Rums, Lime, Cointreau, Falernum

A Trader Vic (aka Victor Bergeron) original first published in his 1947 bartenders guide. A spiced up tiki-fied daiquiri

Penicillin $22

Ginger and Honey Shaken with Scotch whisky, Lemon and crowned with an Islay Float

Created by ex-pat Sam Ross at famed New York bar Milk and Honey in the early 2000's

THE CUT COCKTAILS – COCKTAILS AND LONG DRINKS

Sometimes you need something long and refreshing or a cocktail for that 'just released from prison feeling'. Either way we've got you covered.

Southside Fizz $21
Tanqueray Gin, Lime, Mint, Soda

Featured in Hugo R Ensslin's 1917 "Recipes for Mixed Drinks", this cocktail could be the original "Gin Mojito"

Smoked Pineapple Moscow Mule $20
Tito's Vodka infused with Grilled Pineapple, Mezcal, Lime, Ginger Beer

Created purely out of marketing fanfare in the 1940's by Smirnoff marketing executives, this classic cocktail changed the way the world looks at and consumes vodka.

Rainbow Room's Champagne Punch $22
Champagne, Citrus Fruit Salad, VSOP Cognac, Benedictine, Maraschino

Adapted from a 20th century recipe, Dale deGroof launched this cocktail for New York's famous Rainbow Room restaurant in the late 1980's

Daisy De Santiago $22
Pampero White Rum, Lime, Sugar, Chartreuse, ornamented with fruits in season

In Charles H. Baker's "Jigger, Beaker & Glass" he describes this drink as "a lovely thing introduced to us through the gracious offices of the late Facuno Bacardi, of lamented memory". Fond and kind words from a fairly "opinionated" bon vivant of the 30's

THE CUT COCKTAILS - FANCY COCKTAILS

Feeling adventurous? These cocktails are designed to delight and stimulate using carefully balanced ingredients. This is real serious stuff.

Rusty Nail $21
Johnnie Walker Black Label, Islay Single Malt, Drambuie, Orange Bitters

According to King Cocktail, Dale DeGross, it was created by some "clever bartenders" at the 21 Club in Manhattan sometime in the early 1960's.

Redhook $23
Bulleit Rye Whisky, Sweet Vermouth, Maraschino

Created by Milk & Honey's Enzo Ericco, this cocktail bridges the gap between a Brooklyn and Manhattan and highlights the beautiful balance between sweet, bitter and spice

Smoked Negroni $23
Campari, Sweet Vermouth, Tanqueray Gin, Smoke served tableside

When Count Camillo Negroni ordered his Americano at Caffè Casoni in 1919 with a little extra kick, he could never have known that the world would be crying out his name almost a hundred years later

American Trilogy $23
Bulleit Rye, Applejack, Demerara Sugar, house blend of bitters

The brainchild cocktail from Little Branch in New York, this dark riff on the Old Fashion blends American Apple Brandy with brown sugar taking you to beguiling places

If a classic Martini is more your thing, see our Vodka & Gin list on page34-35 for a full list of possibilities & if your favourite classic cocktail or mocktail is not listed, our charming & knowledgeable bartenders will happily shake it up, just for you. Cheers!

SKIN CONTACT WHITE WINES

These wines were allowed some maceration time, made a little bit like a red wine.

The contact of the grape juice with the skins before or during fermentation promotes extraction of flavours and phenolic compounds that give these wines an extra dimension of colour, body, flavour and texture.

They are great food wines, slightly grippy, aromatic and very flavoursome!

Highlands and The Islands – This land of rugged peaks is geographically the largest of the whisky producing regions. The Central Highlands malts are usually smooth, with honey/floral notes, while in the West Coast the maritime (seaweed, iodine) influence is recognisable becoming stronger as you move towards The Islands.

Speyside – The lush, fertile valley of the River Spey is undoubtedly the heart of single malt whisky distilling in Scotland. Its classic flavours of honey, vanilla and fresh fruits (apples, pears) combine to create whiskies that are both sophisticated and elegant. With age, and especially when matured in sherry casks, they evolve to deliver dried fruit and sweet spice flavours.

Lowlands – The terrain is characterised by rolling fields and the softer landscape is mirrored in the region's single malts which tend to be lighter in both colour and body, than those of the Highlands.

With little or no peat used in the drying of the malt, the whiskies distilled here are generally fresh and light, fragrant and floral with cereal/grassy notes.

Auchentoshan 12 years old	Lowland	16

Islay and Skye – Rugged, windswept and barren; Islay is called by some 'The Whisky Island' due the concentration of distilleries.

The malts found in these two islands are unmistakably powerful; with smoky, peaty aromas and flavours, complemented by maritime (seaweed, iodine) and peppery complexity.

Campbeltown – Once home to more than 30 distilleries, these days the town is home to just three: Springbank, Glengyle and Glen Scotia.

Whiskies from Campbeltown tend to have a little peat and salt to them, and are generally medium to full body.

Ireland

Irish monks brought the technique of distilling perfumes back to Ireland from their travels to the Mediterranean countries around 1000 A.D. Irish malt whiskey is made with 100 percent malted barley and is a powerful yet refined style that gets its smooth, velvety texture and sweet caramel taste from the time-tested use of malted barley.

Japan

The Yamazaki / The Hakushu

Opened in 1923, Yamazaki was Japan's first whisky distillery. This pioneering malt is intense and elegant, with aromas of dried fruits and honey. It has a delicate, mellow taste with a lingering woody, dry finish.

The Hakushu Distillery was founded half a century after Yamazaki. Keizo Saji inherited his father's vision in his quest for innovation and constructed this second Suntory distillery in 1973.

Australia

As the driest inhabited continent on earth, Australia may not seem a logical country for producing whisky; but with rich natural resources and a long history of distillation expertise, Australia is making some truly exceptional single malt whiskies.

With pristine clean water, the highest quality malted barley, and abundant peat bogs in the cool-climate Tasmanian highlands... it's little wonder Australia is attracting global recognition for single malt whisky production.
